

SEG Group is the Leading Providers of Quality Education and provides education to students wishing to pursue careers in international hotel, hospitality and tourism management. It groups 7 campuses located in Bouveret, Brig, Caux, Leysin, Lucerne, Montreux & Neuchâtel.

For our Campus in Brig, we are looking for ;

Lecturer in Management Modules

The successful candidate will join a dynamic team, committed to the delivery of high quality programs and will be required to teach Management Modules to a multi-cultural profile on a Postgraduate/Master level.

Starting date: October 2014

Responsibilities:

- Teach Management Modules like Business Models, Finance, etc. within respective program, taking responsibility for adherence to assessment moderation procedure and relevant administrative systems and policies
- Support the school management in developing and fostering an enterprising and stimulating learning work environment that is recognized and renowned for academic excellence.

Competencies & Qualities:

- PhD finished is a must
- Business and/or Hospitality qualifications and previous business work experience
- Previous teaching experience
- Mother tongue or fluent English
- Computer literate
- Ability to work independently and very well organized
- Excellent communication and presentations skills

Swiss Nationality or C, B, L or G permit or European Nationality CE/AELE.