

Program Manager Pharma Visp-000006Q4

Beschreibung Program Management is part of Pharma&Biotech Operations organization and as such plays a key role for managing our Projects and Programs by best utilizing our technological expertise, existing assets and technical competences to flawlessly execute Customer agreements and expectations. The Ultimate Purpose of Program Management is to lead multi-disciplinary project teams in the successfully delivery of Customer requirements and programs. It is paramount to have strong customer interpersonal skills with the ability to anticipate, understand and successfully respond to the customer needs. The PM is responsible for planning, monitoring and executing to the defined project scope, ensuring the cost, timing and quality objectives are met at the lowest risk to both Lonza and the client.

Qualifikationen We are looking for a flexible and resilient personality with a technical, background (biotechnology, Bio-chemistry or Biochemical engineering preferred). You have experience in project management as well as practical industrial and GMP experience in manufacturing Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients. Assertiveness, natural authority and coaching skills are needed to efficiently lead the project teams in a matrix organisation. Secure, convincing manner, fluency in German and solid skills in English both oral and written are essential.

Tätigkeit Program/Project Management

Primärer Standort CH - Visp

Beschäftigungsart Vollzeit

Name Kontakt extern HR Services Emea

E-mail Kontakt extern HRservicesemea@lonza.com