

QA Manager Lonza Sales AG

Job Description Summary

For Lonza in Visp Randstad (Switzerland) AG is looking for a QA Manager who is responsible for management and further development of the Quality Systems for Lonza Sales AG.

Job description:

- Oversight and documentation of Lonza Sales AG's trading activities with Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients including confirmation of compliance with GDP (Good Distribution Practices). In collaboration with Lonza AG's experts, develop IT solutions to allow better oversight of relevant documentation.
- Establishing and maintaining contact with the relevant stakeholders at Lonza's manufacturing sites worldwide.
- As required, participation in internal compliance audits of the manufacturing sites trading via Lonza Sales AG and following up on any corrective actions needed.
- Establishing monthly reports on traded goods as well as annual product reviews (APQRs) and Management Review reports.
- Responsible to set up the monthly Quality Councils and for escalation of issues accordingly.
- Supporting the Responsible Person during regulatory inspections for Lonza Sales AG.
- Ph.D. preferred, Master's degree in life science with experience also acceptable

Key requirements:

- Ph.D. preferred, Master's degree in life science with experience also acceptable
- Understanding of the applicable cGMP/ Swissmedic regulations
- English on a high level, written and spoken is mandatory, German will be an advantage
- General knowledge of manufacturing processes and analytical methods
- Auditing experience, auditor certification is an asset
- Professional appearance and attitude to establish and maintain excellent working relationship with customers, internal stakeholders and cross-functional teams

The position is temporary until december 2021.